About Alan Schwartz Keynote Speaker

Alan Schwarz is a Pulitzer Prize-nominated journalist best known for his reportage of public health issues for The New York Times, and the author of ADHD Nation — Children, Doctors, Big Pharma and the Making of an American Epidemic.

“At its core, A.D.H.D. Nation is a story – not just of the disorder itself, which has evolved over more than 50 (some would say 200) years, but of children, doctors and drug companies who have led us to the point where 15 percent of American youngsters get diagnosed with it.”
