Forsyth County Schools Course Syllabus 2020/2021

Course Description: AP Research, the second course in the AP Capstone experience, allows students to deeply explore an academic topic, problem, issue, or idea of individual interest. Students design, plan, and implement a yearlong investigation to address a research question. Through this inquiry, they further the skills they acquired in the AP Seminar course by learning research methodology, employing ethical research practices, and accessing, analyzing, and synthesizing information. Students reflect on their skill development, document their processes, and curate the artifacts of their scholarly work through a process and reflection portfolio. The course culminates in an academic paper of 4,000-5,000 words (accompanied by a performance, exhibit, or product where applicable) and a presentation with an oral defense (p. 8, Course and Exam Description).

Standards: Standards for the AP Research course can be found in the AP Research Course and Exam Description - <https://secure-media.collegeboard.org/digitalServices/pdf/ap/ap-research-course-and-exam-description.pdf>

Required Assignments:

Process and Reflection Portfolio (PREP) - Using a process and reflection portfolio, students document their inquiry processes, communication with their teachers and expert advisers, and store reflections on their thought processes. They will have scheduled conferences with their teacher for review and approval of their scholarly work as evidenced by the portfolio. This portfolio will be routinely used for the following:

- Weekly reflections to guide in topic/question development
- Source collection and organization to develop research question and method
- Building academic paper in segments
- Building and storing oral presentation preparation

College Board Submission (Results in AP numerical score for college submission)

- Academic Paper (75% of AP score) – The academic paper consists of 4,000-5,000 words and will be written over the course of the year. This paper showcases a student's research conducted during the class.
- Presentation/Oral Defense (25% of AP score) – Once a student has submitted their academic paper, they will also be required to present their research findings and defend their choices regarding research methods and the contribution their research presents to the current body of knowledge. Students will present to a panel that will also pose questions for the students to explain. The oral presentation/defense will last approximately 15-20 minutes. A visual aid is required for the presentation.

Formative Assessments - Classwork will typically be focused on developing skills to aid in the development of the academic paper and POD. These assignments may include elevator pitches, class assignment completion, peer reviews, poster presentations, and class participation.

Summative Assessments – Some items included in the PREP will be graded as summative assignments. Students will complete an annotated bibliography that shows an alignment of sources to the research topic and an inquiry proposal that clearly identifies the topic of study, research question, preliminary research, and the relevant methodological and ethical considerations. Drafts of the academic paper will be submitted several times throughout the school year to assess student progress. Grades for draft submissions will be based on timely submission and participation in a peer review process. College Board prohibits the teacher from providing specific feedback on the academic paper and presentation/oral defense since they are components of the student's AP score.

Availability for Extra Help: Extra help is available mornings and afternoons by appointment. Help sessions also may be scheduled virtually through Microsoft Teams.

Makeup Work: Make up work is defined as work assigned during a student's absence, not work assigned prior to an absence. The student has five (5) school days upon returning to school to complete make-up work. The teacher has the discretion to grant a longer period to make up work, if there are extenuating circumstances.
