

Jonathan Schreier comes to Forsyth Central High School as an assistant principal for the 2021-2022 school year. Before coming to FCHS, Jonathan served as an assistant administrator at South Forsyth High School since 2018. Before moving into the AA role at SFHS, he taught US History, AP US History, American Government, and US History in Film. He also served as the head golf coach. Mr. Schreier started his education career in 2006 in Gwinnett County as a social studies teacher and basketball coach prior to coming to Forsyth County in 2011. He grew up in Gadsden, Alabama, and is a proud graduate of Auburn University, where he earned his Bachelors degree in Social Science Education. Jonathan has also earned a Masters degree from Columbus State University, and an Educational Specialist degree from Piedmont College.

Mr. Schreier lives in Forsyth County with his wife, Kim, who is also an educator in Forsyth County Schools. They have three children: Addison, who is in 3rd grade; Reid, a 1st grader; and Callie, who was born in January 2021.
