

Dr. Josh Lowe was appointed principal at Forsyth Central HS beginning June 1, 2021 after serving as an assistant principal for eight years prior. Before coming to FCHS, he was assistant principal at Jackson High School and district athletic director for the Butts County School District. During his career as a public school educator, he has served as an athletic director, social studies teacher, special education teacher, physical education teacher, and a head football coach while serving in several districts in both Georgia and Alabama. A native of Dalton, he earned a B.S. in Secondary Education from Jacksonville State University, a M.A. in Secondary Education from the University of Alabama, an Ed.S. in Education Administration and Supervision from Lincoln Memorial University, and an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership from Argosy University.

Dr. Lowe believes community and state involvement is very important in his role as an educator. He is proud to serve on the Board of Directors for the Georgia Association of Secondary School Principals as well as being a member of the National Association of Secondary School Principals and the Georgia Association of Educational Leaders. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the United Way of Forsyth County and recently completed his service on the Board of Directors for Jesse's House and the Forsyth/Dawson Fellowship of Christian Athletes. A highlight of his time in this community also includes serving alongside the founding members of the Forsyth Central Alumni Association Board of Directors from 2015-2021 as their school representative. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his family, attending football games, travelling, reading, and exercising. He is married to the former Valery Lang and has two daughters, Mary Beth and Anna Grace, who are both students Forsyth Central HS.
