

P23-01 FINAL NOTES

DATE: January 29, 2024

TO: All Bidders

Q&A NOTE: Even though the official Q&A deadline was January 19, 2024, FCS continues to receive both email and phone correspondence. In order to ensure equitable exchange of information, FCS will not be responding to any additional inquiries until the RFP closing date.

In the event that your company has:

- additional questions
- requests additional data/reports/analysis
- requests further clarification of answers already posted
- contractual questions

FCS encourages all participating companies to respond as accurately as possible with the information that has already been provided in the RFP document, pre-proposal meeting, posted Q&A (with reports and analysis data). If questions still arise, then note your proposal accordingly. The RFP format will allow for the exchange/clarification of information if initiated by FCS evaluation committee. All comments/concerns/qualified remarks will be duly noted, and FCS will seek additional information if warranted as the evaluation proceeds.
