Midterm EXAM EXEMPTION only applies to a semester long class.

Parents who wish to have their student dismissed from school early or allowed to arrive late must complete the form below and return it to the Counseling Office by Noon on Tuesday, December 12th, 2023.

Students that are not in good academic standing are strongly encouraged to stay on campus for the entire day on December 12th to complete missing assignments and exams.

- Students are not allowed to checkout during the exam period. Students may check out at the conclusion of an exam period using the form below.
- Absences during midterms are considered unexcused unless the student has exempted the final exam of a semester course. Students do not need to report to the attendance office if this form has been turned in.
- Students must leave campus immediately once they check out.
- Dual Enrollment, WBL, and Virtual Students do not need to be in school for periods they take those courses. As usual, IE2 students are required to be off-campus during the period(s) they have IE2.
- Early exams are not permitted, therefore only extreme situations will be considered for a waiver and approval by Mr. Carnaroli.

Students exempt from the second exam of the day would be released at 10:10

Students exempt from the first exam of the day must report to second exam location at 11:15

Students do not need to sign in/out with attendance
