Daytona 500 Crash

The Giant
By Ben Carder
Mrs. C. Hicks’ 2nd Grade Class

“I’m bored,” said Billy. “Mom, tell me a story.”

“Ok,” said Mom. This story is called The Giant.

“Mom, is this story fiction?” asked Billy?

“Yes” replied Mom. “One day, a mean nasty was walking in the woods. He was looking for his next victim. He searched and searched and searched, but he couldn’t find anyone. He got hungry. In the middle of the night he came upon a huge town. He looked for people and animals to eat but still couldn’t find anything. Soon he fell asleep. In the morning he heard screaming. He stood up and started chasing them. The giant destroyed the whole town. Police officers came and tied him down with ropes. He escaped and ran back into the woods. He never left the woods for food again. The End.”

ZZZZZ.

“Wake up, Billy, I finished,” said Mom.

“Ok. Can I have some lunch now?” asked Billy.
