

The Mashburn 20

Rule 1: Use your manners. Say, "yes, ma'am," "please," and "thank you."

Rule 2: Make eye contact, listen, and speak clearly.

Rule 3: Congratulate your classmates. Clap and cheer when something good happens.

Rule 4: Respect others' opinions and ideas with your words and gestures.

Rule 5: Be good winners and good losers.

Rule 6: When you cough, sneeze or burp, turn your head away into your elbow and say, "Excuse me".

Rule 7: Do not ask for rewards.

Rule 8: Transition swiftly, quietly, and orderly.

Rule 9: On the playground be kind and play safely.

Rule 10: When you are with a substitute, any other teacher, staff member or adult volunteer, obey the same rules as if your teachers were in the room.

Rule 11: Keep restrooms clean and safe.

Rule 12: Follow lunchroom rules:

-Stay in your seat and raise your hand for help.

-Use proper table manners.

-Eat lunch during quiet time.

-Use an inside voice.

-Clean up all trash.

Rule 13: When on a field trip or assembly be on your best behavior.

Rule 14: Walk quietly in a single file line with your hands to yourself.

Rule 15: If you approach a door and someone is behind you, hold the door open for them.

Rule 16: Respect others' space and belongings.

Rule 17: No matter what, always be honest!

Rule 18: If any child in the school is bothering you, tell an adult IMMEDIATELY!

Rule 19: Do your best and make today ridiculously amazing!

Rule 20: Be positive, enjoy life, and be the best person you can be!